

Madalyn “Maddie” Byrnes

Maddie Byrnes is currently a Jr. at Springdale HS where she has maintained High Honor Roll since 7th Grade while taking several Advanced Program classes. She is a member of: the Soccer Team, secretary of The Future is Mine (TFIM), Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA), Prom Committee, and Service Learning Program.

Through the Service Learning Program, Maddie has helped the Western PA Ataxia Foundation with programs for their fundraisers. She volunteers for all their efforts to help raise money and awareness to this debilitating disease that affects several members of her family, including her two Aunts, an Uncle and Grandfather.

Maddie is a counselor for Fun & Freedom, a Christian, faith based non-profit organization whose mission is “To primarily use sports to positively impact youth – physically, socially, morally and spiritually to ultimately increase self-esteem.” She has worked her way up the ladder to be a coach and positively influences approximately 150 kids each season.

She is currently the President of Jr. Ladies Ancient Order of Hibernians (LAOH) which is an Irish Roman Catholic Organization whose motto is “Friendship, Unity and Christian Charity”. Through this group she has over 300 volunteer hours for various fundraisers and community service projects. Through the Jr. LAOH she has met Sr. Florence Lynch and is an advocate for Angels in Overalls. Sr. Florence's Angels program provides furniture and household supplies for refugees, families working with various nonprofits, mothers and fathers who escaped from violent relationships and countless others.
